Dear Robert:

As I have advised both yourself and Mike recently I am extremely pleased with the job you have done in building out my new office space. I am writing this letter, in particular, however, to advise you how impressed I have been your field supervisor, Maurice Gaudreau.

Initially, please note, I decided to write this letter prior to any discussion with him as I felt that he really did a superb job and deserved your recognition for this.

I was extremely impressed by the fact that the job site was always clean and well-ordered. Maurice appeared to run the operation with extreme precision. The subcontractors were in and out on schedule. They appeared to respect his authority which enabled the job to proceed seamlessly from my point of view.

I realize that some of the operation is a reflection of your operation; however, he seemed to carry out your "system" completely and effortlessly.

I was prompted to write you regarding Maurice as I was exceptionally impressed with his dedication to the job, as well as to Solutions. Whenever I was on-site, he sought me out, updated me on the status of the job and appeared to be always genuinely concerned with my satisfaction. This on numerous occasions included the statement, "Solutions wants you to be happy." He made sure that I was happy.

I would only hope that my employees would reflect my philosophies and goals in performing the tasks I requested as he has for you. I assume that my comments are not isolated in acknowledging Maurice's skill in his position and would hope that you recognize him for his accomplishments.

Again, thank you for an excellent and unique relationship in such a well-executed job. I hope that I can hire Solutions again for any construction project I might do in the future. Thank you for your attention to my comments.

Very truly yours,
